RAINBOW

EDITTING

Good writers need to edit. Use a colored pencil and edit each section with the matching color. Example: use a red colored pencil to check spelling. You should try your best to find at least one mistake for each color. Be careful and check for everything! Take your time!

Red-Check your spelling.

Orange-Be sure you used correct punctuation.

Yellow-Make sure all sentences and proper nouns begin with a capital letter

Green-Are all of your sentences complete sentences? Do they have a subject and a predicate? Do you have any run-on sentences?

Blue-Did I use quotation marks in my dialogue?

Purple-Be careful to use correct grammar and subject verb agreement.
